Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/671,667	Applicant(s) KUMAZAWA ET AL.
	Examiner Blane J. Jackson	Art Unit 2618

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 19 May 2006.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL.                      2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argues the pips identified in the Haffenden reference are not slopes and they cannot as does the claimed slope aid in the guidance of the card into the insertion port. However, Haffenden discloses "The card continues to be slid until it has completely cleared the pips and its front edged contacts the transverse wall 43." And "The SIM card is retained in this position by the guide grooves 36 and the pips 37", column 4, lines 58-64. With respect to the claimed slope and stopper, figure 6 also discloses the relationship that the pips are at the end of the slope and are essentially part of the sloped structure and function as a stopper to the card reversing out of the reading region, column 4, lines 34-40. This opinion is repeated in the Final Rejection to follow.

Specification

The new Abstract received 19 May 2006 is approved.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2618

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Haffenden et al. (US 6,226,189).

As to claim 1, Haffenden teaches a card holding structure comprising:

A card insertion port provided in a battery holding concave portion of an internal housing (figures 3-6, column 4, lines 5-17, card inserted into internal housing (32) at loading region (33) and column 4, lines 46-51, space is covered by a battery (41) of mobile telephone, column 4, lines 41-45),

A slope which is provided near the card insertion port to guide the insertion of a card into the internal housing (figure 4, column 4, lines 18-33, guide ramp (39) in loading region (33)),

A card connector for holding the card, wherein an end of said slope is positioned as a stopper (figure 6, column 4, lines 46-64, the SIM card is retained in the reading region (34) by the guide grooves (36) and the pips (37) where the pips function as a stopper, column 4, lines 34-40 and are considered to be the end of ramp (39)).

As to claim 2, Haffenden teaches the internal housing is provided with a holding rib for inserting the card to a predetermined position (SIM card housing (32) includes transverse wall (43), column 4, lines 34-37).

As to claim 4 with respect to claim 1 or 2, Haffenden teaches the internal housing which covers the card connector has an opening (figure 5, loading region (33), column 4, lines 11-17).

As to claim 5 with respect to claim 4, Haffenden teaches the opening is located near the card in the internal housing (figures 5 and 6, loading region (33) with respect to card (40)).

As to claim 8 with respect to claim 1, Haffenden teaches the internal housing which covers the card connector has an opening (figure 6, support structure (31) has an opening for a SIM card connector in the reading region, column 4, lines 18-22).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
